publican national committee, said today that since the Chicago convention, less than $1.000.000 had been rained by his party for the national campaign.

The exact sum shown on the treasurer's books as collected for the national fund, Mr. Uuham said was $944,353.82. He added that Mr. Hays' estimation of $2,000.000, the total required to carry on the campaign, was "quite correct."

Mr. Upham expressed the opinion that Governor Cox, in charging that more than $700.000 was raised "in one place" was speaking of the state of Illinois, where this amount was raised, "but for purposes of national, state and county campaigns combined."

Ohio, he said, for both state and county campaigns combined."

Ohio, he said, for both state and county campaigns, had collected $169,000.
